ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Tiddley Winks Musical Comeds company will remain over the week at the strand. They will present an entire the strand. They will present an entire new musical comedy, having new costumes, songs, dances, and new original comedy. Already this company is the talk of the town. Also a big feature pioture, with Clara Kimball Young.

The chilly regions of Siberia where the political prisoners of Russia toll through a tortured existence, Leve comes to the heroine of "Hearts in Exile" in the strangest possible fashion. This release is throughout the entire length of the five reels, a pictureplay of truly absorbing reels, a pictureplay of truly absorbing interest. The manner in which Fate plays with the three principal characters in this production is startling and thrilling. Altogether the production is on a particularly high plane. The scenic effects are exceptional, the cast is notable and the illustrated titles, which are a feature of all the releases in this service, make "Hearts in Exile" a film play of extraordinary merit. Clara Kimball Young is the star of the production and the Strand theatre is delighted to be able to present this offering to its patrons or Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Today The Tiddley Winks Musical Comedy Company in a production that is just brimful of laughs. Also Eva Novak up "Up in Mary's Atlic." Here is a picture that you have not yet seen. Tom will regret it for a long time if you don't in this production is startling and thrill will regret it for a long time if you don't see it today.

"The Blazing Trail," Frank Maye's most recent Universal photodrama. It is be shown at the Breed theatre today, and Thursday, It will have an especially fitting presentation. It contains remarks ting presentation. It contains remarks-ble scenes of mountain life in actual mountain settings. The picture deals with a young physician whose mind breaks under the strain of overwork and who goes in an isolated community in the Blue Ridge Mountains to regain his poise. While there he saves the life of poise. While there he saves the life of a girl by the use of a serum for bleod-poisoning, regains his mental power and finds himself thoroughly inoculated with the love-germ. Lillian Rich, Mary Philbin, Ray Ripley, Verne Winter, Bers Sportte, Madge Hunt, Joy Winthrop and Helen Gilmore are in the cast. "The Blazing Trail" was written by Mana Page and Izola Forrester. For the second feature Buck Jones will be seen in "Just Pals." a stirring story of a golden hearted Ne'er-Do-Well.
